“Everybody Give Something” Is Urged By Committee

Home-Coming Set for Nov. 20th

Hundreds of former students at Barium Springs are coming home on Friday, November 20th. That means they are coming back to the Orphanage for a one-day visit, which includes a luncheon, alumni meeting, football game, and all the thrills and excitement attendant upon renewing friendships and talking about the days “when”.

Elsewhere on this page of The Messenger will be found a letter which has been written to the alumni whose addresses were available for the Secretary of the Alumni Association. Many of the former students did not receive this letter, because recent addresses are not available for them. It is therefore being reprinted in The Messenger, for it is thought that some of them will be reached in this manner.

Alumni are asked to read that letter carefully, and respond to both of its appeals - an appeal to come back to Barium on November 20th, and an appeal for each individual to send a Thanksgiving Offering to the Secretary so that the alumni body can make its own Thanksgiving Offering to Barium when the returning members assemble here within a few days after this issue of The Messenger is delivered.

Present officers of the Alumni Association are R. E. Jackins, of Barium Springs, president, and Miss Hilda Bernardo, of Charlotte, secretary. These officers have done such a good job of “officer-ing” that the Alumni Association haven’t let them relinquish their posts. It will be decided at the alumni meeting just what the association is going to do about its officers for the coming year.

While this is designed particularly as a Home-Coming affair for former students, it’s not limited to the students alone. The wives and children of some and the sweet-hearts of others will also be along. And, some of the “grandchildren” of Barium will be toddling about on November 20th, too. If you don’t believe it, come and see!

Income Distribution

Of the $20,302.16 that has been regularly received during the past seven months, 47.9% has come from Sunday School Offerings, 34.9% through the church budgets and 17.2% from the Auxiliaries. The numerical figures of the income are Sunday Schools, $9,732.32; Church budgets, $7,084.54, and Auxiliaries, $3,485.30. The table below shows how these gifts are distributed according to organizations within the nine Presbyteries:

Pres.	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.
A	$ 298.69	$ 495.70	$ 578.77
C	1,348.60	1,700.95	411.36
F	391.60	1,509.57	479.68
G	576.31	512.30	226.53
KM	290.39	1,075.53	272.65
M	2,065.49	1,481.26	534.55

Suggestion

It is suggested to Sunday School superintendents, local Orphanage Secretaries and Presidents of Auxiliaries when there is no special secretary, that the first and fourth pages of this issue of The Messenger be used as a poster on bulletin boards or at conspicuous and strategic points in all Church or Sunday School buildings. Open the paper up and tack it on the board so that those two pages are visible to everybody. The message from the Orphanage is there in the pictures, and the message from Synod’s Thanksgiving committee is on page four.

Special Series

The special articles which have been appearing in The Barium Messenger for some time about the various departments at the Orphanage are being temporarily discontinued until space in The Messenger allows a resumption of them.

THANKSGIVING SEASON IS ONE OF TREMENDOUS IMPORTANCE TO ORPHANAGE, PARTICULARLY IN '36

Definite Aims for 80,922 Presbyterians Are Set Forth by Synod’s Thanksgiving Committee, and All Members Are Working to Realize These Possibilities

That all-important season to the Orphanage is close at hand. It’s the Thanksgiving season. And, this year it is more important than ever because of the aims that have been outlined by Synod’s Thanksgiving committee and which have been placed before the Synod of North Carolina. It’s that season of the year when more than half of the income for the Orphanage is contributed by friends, and it’s the urge of the committee this Thanksgiving that “Everybody Give Something” with a monetary goal of $66,000.00.

On page four will be found pertinent facts about the Orphanage, which have been prepared by the Thanksgiving committee and which are being distributed throughout the Synod of North Carolina in booklets numbering 50,000. Standing out are the results that will follow a $66,000.00 Thanksgiving Offering. These are: complete elimination of the Orphanage’s indebtedness; making available $10,000.00 for operation which has been annually used in interest costs and debt retirement, and the filling of 55 vacant beds at the Orphanage.

Space does not permit the recording of the names of those men who are on the various committees of the nine Presbyteries. It had been hoped that this could be included in this article. However, the names of each Presbytery’s committeemen are on the backs of the booklets being distributed, and the goal of each Presbytery is also printed upon the booklet. Those goals are being kept before the minds and hearts of the people of the churches in all Presbyteries by these enthused and enthusiastic committeemen.

The goal of $66,000.00 that Synod’s committee set after assembling at Barium for a meeting represents an increase of almost 50% over the $44,454.56 that was contributed in 1935. It will be the greatest Thanksgiving Offering in the 45-year history of the Orphanage, for the largest one in prior years was $49,467.73, which was given in the fall of 1927. It will exceed that amount by a wide margin.

Different committees are following different methods of presenting this to the churches, depending upon the best procedure in different parts of the Synod. One Presbytery is having a series of rallies at points in that Presbytery that are available to every church. Another committee is having supper-meetings at seven cities in that Presbytery, and still others are following other methods in getting the Orphanage before the people.

Many churches have set goals for themselves, and the goals are such that more than a 50% increase will be shown by these. Others have been challenged to specific goals. Many are going out this Thanksgiving to exceed any Thanksgiving Offering that has been made in the past 11 years. Last fall, 103 churches or mission points gave the best Thanksgiving Offerings in 11 years. It is expected that at least 300 will establish new 12-year peaks this month.

Some personal and individual offerings have already arrived at Barium, and by the time this copy of The Messenger reaches you many other contributions will have been received. The Churches’ gifts, though, will not start reaching Barium until after Thanksgiving.

Remember the aim, “Everybody Give Something,” and the wonderful realities that will follow the meeting of the $66,000.00 goal.

Secretary of Association Writes

Charlotte, N. C.,
304 N. Poplar St.,
November 2, 1936

To All Former Barium Boys and Girls:

Dear Friends:

Did you ever sit down to write a letter and had so much to say that you wondered what you’d write first? I’m somewhat in that predicament as I start this - the second letter ever directed to the Alumni Association as a body.

I don’t believe there’s any better way to begin, though, than to thank all of those who had a part in the 1935 Thanksgiving Offering that we were able to turn over to the Home, as coming from the Alumni Association. Maybe you saw the different sums listed in The Messenger. The final total was $217.00, and your officers think that is a mighty fine start, especially since our letter last fall reached only about 250 of the alumni. That’s the sum that came through the Association; we’re confident that many more dollars were given through churches of which the alumni are members.

We want to make a similar gift to our old Home this fall as an Alumni unit. We’ve enlarged the mailing list considerably, and as each year passes we hope to get the correct addresses of many more, until we have the majority of the 1,500 who have been given a home at Barium. I’m enclosing a blank today, which I hope you’ll fill out and send to me real soon, with an accompanying gift. Let’s send in all of these gifts by November 20th.

And, the mention of that date as a deadline has a special meaning, because that’s Home-Coming Day for us. It’s Friday, November 20th, and at the conclusion of our meeting after dinner that day we want to turn over to officials at Barium the 1936 Thanksgiving Offering of the Alumni Association.

We want you there that day, by all means. If you’ve ever talked to anyone who went back to Barium for Home-Coming, you’ll understand why they return every year. We do have a good time there, meeting old friends, looking over the old campus, visiting the various cottages where we stayed and seeing many of the workers whom we knew “in our youth”. And, one of the happy occasions last year was the announcement of how much the Alumni Association had given as a Thanksgiving Offering.

Write your classmates to meet you there. We know of a member of the Class of ’24 who is doing this. Get in touch with them. And, by the way, send me the names and addresses of all the old Barium boys and girls you know. This will help us to quickly bring our mailing list up to date. Don’t forget the date: Friday, November 20th. In the afternoon we’ll see the football game between Barium and Albemarle, and how we do enjoy those! Our Alumni President, you know, is one of the coaches at Barium. Let’s back him, back the team, back the Home, and have a much greater Thanksgiving Offering for Barium this fall.

Sincerely yours,
Hilda Bernardo
Secretary,
Barium Alumni Association.

What You Ought to Know About Your Orphans' Home

There are 305 children now in the home. There are 55 empty beds to be filled.

200 applications had to be rejected last year for lack of funds and facilities.

Barium Springs is a home, not an institution. Besides feeding, clothing, housing, educating the children, Barium Springs undertakes to give these children best possible substitutes for the homelife with their parents.

Barium Springs boys and girls respond splendidly to the training and treatment they receive.

These boys and girls have gone to colleges and taken front rank in literary courses, sportsmanship, and leadership in all lines. They are also making good out in the avenues of life. Some are rising to distinction in their chosen spheres.

Thanksgiving Goal for 1936 $66,000.00

If all the nine presbyteries meet their quotas, the 55 empty beds will be filled and the Home will be freed of all indebtedness, which means a saving of $10,000 annually for carrying charges on the debt.

WHY NOT LIFT THIS BURDEN FROM THE ORPHANS' HOME?

Thanks to the fine offering of last year, your Orphans' Home is in better condition.

Much is to be done yet to make it the Home it ought to be, as truly representative of the great Presbyterian Church.

Our Thanksgiving offering this year, with everybody doing his part—be it big or little—ought to be the most successful one we've ever had.

Thanksgiving Goal for the Synod $66,000

Slogan This Year:

"EVERYBODY GIVE SOMETHING"
